In no case will lots be sold for less than 50% of estimate.

4. Bidders unknown to us must supply acceptable credit references or a 25% deposit to assure entry of their bids.
5. A ten percent buyer's premium will be added to the cost of all lots. There is no additional charge or commission for executing your bids.
6. All postage, insurance and shipping charges will be added to your invoice. There will be a $2.00 charge per lot for packing and processing.
7. Terms of this sale are strictly cash in United States funds. Foreign payments must be made in dollars. All checks must be drawn on United States banks and must have electronic encoding. Payments may also be made directly to our bank: Bank of America, Branch #0189, 28200 St. Hwy. 189, Bldg. "V", Lake Arrowhead, CA 92352. Account No. 01895-02376. Checks drawn on foreign banks will not be accepted.
8. Lots to be mailed to addressees not in the United States or its Territories will be sent only at the risk of the purchaser. When possible, insurance or registration will be obtained. There will be a charge of $1.00 per $100.00 of value for international shipments covered by private insurance.
9. Title to all lots remains with the cataloguer until paid for in full. Payment must be made immediately upon notification or upon receipt of material. The discretionary right to withhold delivery of lots until full payment has been received is reserved.

The Making of a Numismatic Classic

41 Frey, Albert R(omer). A DICTIONARY OF NUMISMATIC NAMES. THEIR OFFICIAL AND POPULAR DESIGNATIONS. New York: Reprinted from The American Journal of Numismatics, Volume L, 1917. Two "imperfect" copies of the work, and a four inch stack of galleys and page proofs, etc., many featuring corrections, presumably made by the author. (500.00)

A unique, most interesting archive. The galleys and page proofs feature extensive corrections. Also present are two file folders containing manuscript trial types (i.e., "A Numismatic Vocabulary..." and "A Dictionary of Coin Names..."); handwritten notes on the number of copies to be printed, retail price, etc.; a typescript introduction; the original manuscript of the introductory text; manuscript and typescript promotional materials relating to the book; etc. One of the "imperfect" copies appears to be complete; 16 pages in the other copy are present as page proofs, a number featuring corrections in red crayon. A careful perusal of the materials present here cannot help but greatly enhance one's appreciation of the meticulous care and prodigious effort put forth by Albert R(omer) Frey in the preparation of his numismatic magnum opus. Over eight decades after publication, it remains indispensable.

Excellent quality laser photocopies of the original manuscript, sold as lot 2006 in the September 10, 1995 Bowers and Merena sale. - 169 Adams, Edgar H. EARLY U. S. GOLD VARIETIES. Old photocopy. Original typescript title leaf, 95 photocopy leaves, mainly of typescript descriptions, often accompanied by photocopy illustrations derived from photographs, heavily annotated in red ink. 8.5 x 11 inch sheets, housed in a gray leatherette report binder. (250.00)

Harry Bass's original annotated set of photocopies of Adams' important notebook on varieties of early United States gold coins, including sections on quarter eagles 1796-1833, half eagles 1795-1834, and eagles 1795-1804. Harry Bass's often detailed notes mainly consist of diagnostic points, and also include descriptions of new varieties, notes on the dates, sale appearances, and other interesting observations. Included is a photocopy of a May 6, 1966 letter from Robert F. Batchelder to John H. Morrell (sic) concerning an "1850 $5Gold with small SD." Some of the photocopy annotations, after those of Adams, appear to have been made by others. Unique and of considerable interest.

- 170 Adams, Edgar H. EARLY U. S. GOLD VARIETIES. Old photocopy. Original typescript title leaf, 95 photocopy leaves, mainly of typescript descriptions, often accompanied by photocopy illustrations derived from photographs, annotated in red ink. 8.5 x 11 inch sheets, housed in a green leatherette report binder. Loosely laid in are old photocopies of four 1912 Gable sale plates of gold coins, and 86 apparently later photocopies of the main work. (250.00)

A further set of annotations of Adams' important notebook on varieties of early United States gold coins also featuring Harry Bass's original annotations, mostly in red ink. While not as numerous, Bass's notes are entirely different from those found in the preceding set. The loose photocopies also include occasional annotations in red ink by other transcribers of considerable interest.

187 American Numismatic Association. THE NUMISMATIST, FOR COLLECTORS OF COINS, MEDALS, TOKENS AND PAPER MONEY. HISTORY, BY-LAWS AND MEMBERSHIP. May 1964. 282 pages. Quarto. Green cloth, gilt, original printed blue front card cover bound in, front cover of binding a trifle discolored. Fine. (100.00)
Ex July 14-15, 1972 Katen Bradford sale, part of lot 839. At the time of publication, Elston G. Bradford was editor of The Numismatist, and the volume at hand was presumably specially bound by or for him at the time. It is the last membership guide published by the association. Reportedly, this directory, recording the name and address of "All A. N. A. members who have paid their dues as of March 1, 1964," was utilized as a finder's guide by coin thieves, resulting in its discontinuance. As the last of the genre, even today it remains of considerable utility. The work includes a brief history of the organization by Jack Ogilvie, detailed membership information, and useful lists of convention dates and locations from 1891 to 1964, a list of beginning membership numbers from 1900 to 1964, former editors of The Numismatist, and recipients of the Zerbe award. Members are listed both alphabetically and geographically (doubtless a further boon to those criminally inclined).

188 American Numismatic Society. CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS OF THE AMERICAN NUMISMATIC SOCIETY. ADOPTED SEPTEMBER, 1858. New York: T. W. Strong, Caloric Printer, 98 Nassau Street, 1858. Second Edition. 8 pages. Vigesimoquarto: 15.2 x 9.7 cm. Original printed tan wrappers, once folded. Fine. (200.00)
Ex Essex Institute with their blindstamp and call number on the title, ex June 12-13, 1981 Kolbe sale, lot 492, @ $425.00, where it was mistakenly described as the first printing. Rare. According to Adelson's The American Numismatic Society, 1858-1958, the first printing of the Constitution of the longest surviving numismatic society in the United States was adopted at the April 6, 1858 meeting of the Society. He goes on to relate that the "Constitution which had been adopted so quickly at the first regular meeting was duly published with the list of officers and members of the standing committees, but no sooner was this done than proposals were made to revise that document and the By-Laws. At the fifth meeting on July 13, 1858, some modifications were suggested in the wording of the first article of the Constitution which would have removed the emphasis that had been placed on American coinage and medallic productions... At the meeting of September 14, 1858... the new Constitution was adopted." And, indeed, the phrase "its objects shall be the collection and preservation of the coins and medals struck in this country with an investigation into their history..." had been amended to read: "its objects are the collection and preservation of coins and medals, with an investigation into their history, and other subjects connected therewith." Aug. B. Sage has been crossed out as Curator in this copy and W. L. Brannhall has been entered in ink, confirming the change made in that office in January, 1859.

Déjà vu jujitsu?

189 American Numismatic Society. SUGGESTED PLAN FOR A BUILDING FOR THE NUMISMATIC AND ARCHAEOLOGICAL SOCIETY. New York: The De Vinne Press, 1906. (8) pages, 8 fine plates of plans and views. Original printed tan wrappers a trifle discolored, internally very fine. Also included is a December, 1906 form letter from Chairman Archer M. Huntington and members of the Building Committee soliciting building funds ("it will cost about $50,000... about half has, so far, been subscribed"), along with a subscriber form and return mailing envelope. Present as well are photocopies of the foregoing materials. (50.00)
Ex H. A. Brand, with his address label on the inside front cover. Included is a history of the American Numismatic Society, and a brief account of the collection ("about 30,000 specimens of coins, medals and tokens and embracing some of the greatest rarities of ancient and modern times"). The frontispiece provides a fine view of the exterior of the proposed building with gentlemen in high hats, accompanied by an elegant lady or two, perambulating about the surrounding terrace; the remaining plates comprise internal floor plans and external elevations. The items present here are accompanied by a type-written, signed, March 2, 1905 letter on official stationery to Harry W. Bass, Jr. from American Numismatic Society Director Leslie A. Elam, reading: "Dear Harry, We all thank you for rediscovering the 1906 ANS building campaign literature and for sending us copies for sale. No doubt we shall find a way to crib from it if the NYHS gets its act together and we move on the project. Enclosed is the original." All housed in the original mailing envelope.

Also included are: the 1906 Annual Address of the President; the 1906 Suggested Plan for a Building...; and William R. Weeks' 1910 The American Numismatic Society. Thirteen items in all, original wrappers, printed card covers, or self covered, as issued. Generally very good or better copies. (100.00)
An interesting collection. One of the two copies of the 1896 Constitution is headed "Amended" in red ink on the front cover and features corrections and extensive additions in red ink and pencil, both to the Constitution and the by-laws. Presumably the Secretary of the Society's own copy.

Out of print. Though the first section is largely superseded by John Adams' 1987 work, Parts II & III, listing reference works, fixed price catalogues and other obscure early American numismatic publications, are still indispensable. Additionally, Part I is filled with fascinating reminiscences and commentary not found elsewhere.

198 AUCTION RECORDS: U. S. GOLD COINS. Undated old photocopy, with underlining in red ink and scattered annotations in ink and pencil. Several hundred sheets, in sections for $1, $2, $3, $5, $10 & $20 gold coins. 8.5x 11 inches. Housed in a report binder. (50.00)

The key to the auction sales cited includes catalogues dated from 1956 to 1965. Apparently an early private effort, utilized early on as a source and record of information by Harry Bass.

The multitude of marginal notes found in the reprint are present here as original veloxes, cut to size and pasted in place (a few notes have come loose). Unique.

Ex libris Melvin and George Pold; ex August 15, 1971 Katen Pold sale, lot 769. Clain-Stefanelli 13292. Sigler 297. A prominent citizen of Philadelphia, Breck (1771-1862) was the author of many historical addresses and dissertations. This essay on the paper currency of the Revolution is considered by the Dictionary of American Biography to be his most notable work. Reissued in 1863 by the important early American coin collector A. C. Kline, it is also the earliest American numismatic work to be reprinted. In his preface of his reprint, Kline states: "This pamphlet has now become of such rarity that its purchase is an utter impossibility, while at the same time an almost universal desire to obtain everything connected with the History of Continental Money, has caused considerable inquiry to be made for it." The second example in the Bass library, and only the third copy to come to market in the modern era. Three other works appeared in this volume: Job R. Tyson's The Social and Intellectual State of the Colony of Pennsylvania prior to the Year 1743; Henry D. Gilpin's Biographical Notice of Edward Livingston; and, perhaps most notably, Benjamin H. Coates' The Effects of Secluded and Gloomy Imprisonment on Individuals of the African Variety of Mankind in the Production of Disease.

- 255 Brownlee, Mike G. HIGHLY IMPORTANT COLLECTION OF CALIFORNIA FRACTIONAL GOLD. (Dallas), undated. Duplicated typescript. 18 leaves, 8.5 x 11 inches. Housed in a three-ring light blue binder, with a typescript title label on the front cover, and a Brownlee mailing label featuring the following typewritten note: "Please return to Mike G. Brownlee." Also included is a similar 12 page list, paper-clipped and loosely laid in. (100.00)
The 18 page list includes columns for Breen/Gillio No., Condition, Rarity, and Provenance. Recorded auction appearances refer mostly to sales from 1979 to 1989. Presumably Brownlee's office copy, including, in the 18 page listing, a few additions in blue ink, and several crossed-through Breen/Gillio Nos., perhaps indicating items sold. Nearly 500 fractional gold pieces are included. The 12 page list includes columns for BG No., Auction price of coin at auction if applicable, Record price received at auction for coin if known, and Doering Evaluation.

- 256 Brownlee, Mike G. HIGHLY IMPORTANT COLLECTION OF CALIFORNIA FRACTIONAL GOLD. (Dallas), undated. Duplicated typescripts. 18 + 12 leaves, 8.5 x 11 inches. Housed in a three-ring dark blue binder, with a typescript title label on the front cover. (150.00)
Presumably another Brownlee office copy, including, in the first section, similar annotations in pencil. Here however, there are extensive pencil notes in the second section on condition, which, though erased (perhaps to allow for duplication of the list), are still generally legible upon close examination. Comparison of the "Auction price" and "Record price" columns with the "Doering Evaluation" column is often startling. The record price for BG 201 ("Superior Lee: 14 $3,960) versus the $50,000 Doering evaluation is not all that untypical.

A very rare printed response, distributed privately, to the controversy resulting from a Cogan report appearing in the November, 1868 American Journal of Numismatics. His letter on the results of Ebenezer Locke Mason's maiden coin auction sale of October 28, 1868, featuring material from the collection of J. Colvin Randall, was sharply critical of the grading. The controversy ripens in the December issue where letters from both Mason and Cogan are published, and comes to the boiling point in this letter, written in response to a letter appearing in the January, 1870 issue of Mason's Coin & Stamp Collector's Magazine. Cogan begins: "In Mason & Co.'s Magazine for last month, I find a very gassy reply to a letter of mine, commenting upon the sale of Coins held in Philadelphia in October last. As I could not with propriety ask to be allowed to refer again to this subject, in our New-York Journal, I have taken this means of replying to it, to put myself right with the Collectors, by showing that I was perfectly justified in what I have said in regard to the misrepresentations of the Coins in the Randall Sale." An extensive apologetic/polemic ensues, followed by: "In conclusion I will state that I am not conscious of having said a single thing in what I have written that is not truthful and; notwithstanding all his worthy endeavors to bring me into contempt with the collectors, I hope I may safely say that it is not in the power of Mr. E. Mason, Jr., Editor of Mason & Co.'s Magazine, or a dozen men like him, under the circumstances as they have now been put before my friends, to succeed in doing so, and subscribe myself certainly not a 'Notoriety-Seeking Coin-Dealer'; but Very faithfully yours, EDWARD COGAN."

The publishers termed it "a universal history, accurately illustrated, of the coins of the world, precious metal resources, mintages, etc." The space given to American coins is impressive. Pages 115-256 are devoted to "British Colonial Coinages" and Fugio coins. The following chapter, entitled "American and Other Gold, and the Private Coinage of Gold in the United States" occupies pages 257-480 and the contents from page 1065 on are devoted to United States coins, including an appendix on the "History of the Recently Discovered Confederate Silver Dollar," by E. A most interesting monthly publication, providing detailed information on counterfeit United States paper money and coins. Woodcuts on the first page of this issue depict the reverse of a genuine and counterfeit 1875 nickel, and the accompanying text notes that "Although small pieces, persons receiving nickels may as well reject counterfeits. Horse railroads, omnibus (sic) lines and small dealers should take warning. One of the horse railway companies of New Orleans offers a reward of $1000 for the conviction of any person passing this counterfeit upon any of their agents..."

300 Empire Coin Company, Inc. AN OUTSTANDING SELECTION OF UNITED STATES PATTERN COINS FEATURING THE INCOMPARABLE COLLECTION OF MAJOR LENOX R. LOHR. Binghamton, (1960). Typeset title, (22) typescript leaves. Also included are: Price List of Bronze Medals for Sale by United States Mint..., circa 1961, 4 typescript leaves; 1965 typescript 16 page Coinage Industries brochure, plus a separate order blank; and B. A. Bisenius' 1964 The Bevert Coin Guide, title plus 13 typescript leaves. Quarto. All housed in a brown report binder. Fine. (150.00)
The main work comprises an extensive listing of patterns, including a biography of Lohr. It remains scarce and important. Also noteworthy is the Coinage Industries publication, wherein the firm "proudly presents the finest coin cleaning and restoration service of its kind in the world. Proof, U. S. and foreign coins, medals and tokens expertly cleaned. Ancients, trial pieces and rarities restored and preserved." Included is a glossary of terms, introduction, and an extensive price list of the "Process Charge" for "Rare Proof Coins... 1877, 1909S-Indian, 1909S-VDB, 1914D & 1955-D. Die Cents... Rolls of Unc. Silver Dollar keys," etc. Prices varied widely, from $5.00 per coin for proofs and key date small cents, to 24 each for "7 rolls or more Circ. Common date Dimes." The firm promised to "enhance the beauty of your coins and reward you with bigger coin profits when you sell. Coinage can process any coinage metal; restore brilliant and mirror-like finishes without the slightest alteration to detailed coin surfaces, and provide original color matching. We can remove stubborn soils, pigmented compounds, oxides, tarnish, carbon spots, patinas, and other forms of corrosion. Our finishes are enduring, and do not impart artificial colors. Coppers, brass and bronze coins never take on a pinkish cast like most coins do when cleaned with popular do-it-yourself coin cleaners." With uncharacteristic humility, they do admit that "Since our cleaning process does not alter coin surfaces, we cannot remove penetrating scratches, nicks, gouges or pits, nor can we restore worn, heavily corroded and mutilated coins or coin dates." Most interesting.

313 Ford, John L. Jr. [THE FRANKLIN HOARD OF UNITED STATES ASSAY OFFICE GOLD COINS, AN ANSWER TO ERIC P. NEWMAN]. An old, perhaps contemporary photocopy of the August 1967 text of John Ford's Opinion, Analysis, and Exhibits presented to the Professional Numismatists Guild, Inc. Arbitration Panel, concerning the "Arbitration Controversy" between Paul E. Garland and Thomas Ryan Roberts. In the U.S.A. 68-3 1893 Double eagle. Ex C. S. Stiles; ex August 8-9, 1968 Colby Ritzman sale, lot 55. Clain-Stefanelli 12524. A noted artist, Heaton lived 86 years. His interest in numismatics waned in later life, but at the time this work was published, he was an avid coin collector. In the preface, he notes: "The writer, a few years since, after enriching his almost complete collection of silver and minor issues of the parent institution with all attainable varieties, became much interested in gathering United States coinage bearing the letters... commonly known as 'Mint Marks.'" This pursuit, of course, led to publication of the book and to the popularity of coin collecting on this basis. Although it achieved wide distribution at the time, today, copies are scarce. Popularly known by its cover title, Mint Marks, this landmark work surely succeeded beyond the author's wildest dreams in creating a "new and zealous interest" in modern United States coinage.

Three interesting early American newspapers. The 1795 Herald features an article on the front page entitled "Gold Coinage," reading: "About 8000 Half Eagles (value five dollars), have been issued from the mint of the United States finely executed, LIBERTY is represented by a female head, in which the finest touches of the graver, display the most perfect symmetry of feature, animated with the truly beneficent expression of a DEITY. Our Columbian artist, has evinced the justness of his ideas of Freedom; by the mild, yet resolute, firm, yet feminine (sic) soul, which he has communicated to his figure of that divine goddess; speaking eloquently from her countenance, winning our love and commanding our homage. The reverse bears the American Eagle, soaring with the Olive-Branch: The gold appears of the finest carat and the coinage must be popular not only from its intrinsic value, but its extrinsic workmanship." The 1853 Lancaster Intelligencer includes an article on "The Silver Coinage," reading in part: "The House of Representatives has passed the bill which passed the Senate at the last session, amendatory of the existing laws regulating the coinage of the half dollar, quarter dollar, dime, and providing for the coinage of three-dollar gold pieces."

"The American colonial money is not much sought for in British collections..."

349 Humphreys, H. Noel. THE COIN COLLECTOR'S MANUAL, OR GUIDE TO THE NUMISMATIC STUDENT IN THE FORMATION OF A CABINET OF COINS... London, 1853. Two volumes. xxiv, 726 pages, 11 engraved plates of coins. Duodecimo. Contemporary black full morocco, all page edges gilt, bindings defective, covers loose, internally fine. (250.00)

Inscribed at the head of both titles: "J. Colburn, 1853." Also included is a handwritten 4 page letter from Henry Noel Humphreys, bound at the beginning of the first volume, reading: "Dear Sir, I should have answered the queries contained in your kind letter dated April 11 immediately but unfortunately mislaid the letter and could not recollect your address. The American colonial money is not much sought for in British collections which [is] rather surprising as it appears to me to form a very interesting feature in our series. Almost all the coins you mention can be procured at very modest prices. Most of the copper not more than 6 pence per specimen & some less except in case of very rare date, &c., &c. The silver are also to be procured at proportional rates with one or two exceptions only. If you should wish any of the specimens you name procured for you I will look out among the dealers for best & cheapest examples and forward to you, if you inform me of the best mode of doing so. Have you seen my 'Coinage of the British Empire'? I think it contains more about the American coinage than the other works." This letter, written to pioneer American numismatist and a founder of the Boston Numismatic Society, Jeremiah Colburn, from perhaps the most popular British numismatic author of the nineteenth century, provides important insights on the state of coin collecting in the United States in the early 1850s. Penned several years before Cogan's famous cent sale popularized coin collecting and influenced a whole generation of entrepreneurial Americans to enter the coin trade, Humphreys' letter records a moment in time ripe for the dedicated numismatist; Woodward's sale of Colburn's mainline collection, a decade later, attests eloquently to the results attainable.

373 Medlar, Bob. TEXAS OBSOLETE NOTES AND SCRIP. San Antonio: Society of Paper Money Collectors, 1968. xi, 204 pages, text illustrations. Quarto. Original maroon cloth, gilt. Near new. (75.00)
Ex Thomas L. Moore.

374 Molyneux, Peter. A TEXAS MASTER OF COINS. B. MAX MEHL REMAINED IN HIS HOME TOWN AND BECAME THE NATIONAL LEADER OF HIS PROFESSION. Fort Worth: in Bunker's Monthly, The Magazine of Texas, August 1928. xii, (145)-288 pages [the Mehl article comprises pages 273-285]. Original printed card covers, top of spine slightly defective. (35.00)
Ex November 27-28, 1971 Katen Fuld sale, lot 155. Molyneux was chief editorial writer of the Fort Worth Star-Telegram, and a well known bibliophile. This is apparently the first printing of this delightful bit of puffery and the first we have seen. A master of self-promotion, Mehl reassured this work himself in an illustrated edition seven years later.

375 Michels, Ivan C. THE CURRENT GOLD AND SILVER COINS OF ALL NATIONS... Philadelphia, 1884. Fifth Edition. 147, (1) pages, numerous coin illustrations. Quarto. Modern maroon cloth, gilt, all page edges gilt, title edges strengthened. (50.00)
Ex August 15, 1971 Katen Fuld sale, lot 49. Apparently the last edition of this interesting work, crisscrossed with American numismatic legend and lore. As a cambist, it has many useful numismatic applications, but the section on American coins is by far the most interesting. Historical facts and unsubstantiated rumor are interwoven indiscriminately into entertaining if not always accurate accounts. Appended to this edition is a section listing the "Actual Value of United States Gold, Silver, Copper, Bronze and Nickel Coins, Based upon Auction Sales from January to July, 1883."

Heavily annotated throughout with hundreds of additions written in ink. The first major work on the topic, derived from a series of Numismatic Scrapbook articles.

378 Nagy, Stephen K. PLATES OF NEW JERSEY STATE COINAGE. Fine laser copies of lot 2501 from the September 10, 1995 Bowers and Merena sale. 4 sheets, 8.5 x 11 inches, housed in a plastic folder. (50.00)

Ex A. Kosoff, July 30, 1968. Drawing heavily on "Crosbie" and other works, Nelson noted in the preface: "I have endeavored in the following pages to bring together all that is now known concerning the life of William Wood, and also all the information I could glean concerning the various coins issued by him and his representatives subsequent to his decease." Still useful.

380 Nelson, Philip. THE COINAGE OF WILLIAM WOOD, 1722-1733. Brighton: W. C. Weight, 1903. 44 pages, text illustrations, 3 fine plates, addendum slip. Original printed blue card covers. Near fine. (125.00)

Original brown cloth, upper cover lettered in gilt, original green silk marker with the cardboard cent gauge, spine lettered in white, extremities a trifle rubbed. Fine. (400.00)

One of 100 copies printed and apparently one of the earliest copies distributed, without any annotations (the author appears to have routinely updated unsold copies in pencil as corrections and additions became known). A milestone in large cent literature.

383 Newcomb, Howard R. UNITED STATES COPPER CENTS 1816-1857. New York, 1944. First Edition. 284 pages, text illustrations, 11 plates, addenda sheet laid in. Large quarto: 31 x 24.5 x 4 cm. Original red full morocco, gilt, extremities just a trifle rubbed. Very fine. (125.00)

The Deluxe Thick Paper Edition. Completed four years earlier, Newcomb's work was not published until 1944 due to the war. One thousand copies were printed, of which fewer than 100 were printed on thick paper and bound in leather, as here. It marked a great improvement over the pioneering work of Frank Andrews, nearly doubling the variety listings. Dr. Sheldon noted that "Newcomb's book doubtless achieves the highest pinnacle for numismatic completeness." His contemporary and collaborator George H. Clapp wrote: "In his line, the Large Cents," he can well be classed with the late Edward T. Newell in his line of Greece and Rome."

Raymond published the first of seventeen editions of his famous Standard Catalogue of United States Coins and Currency from 1652 to Present Day, based in large part on the five titles specially bound together above. The forerunner of the "Red Book," the Standard Catalogue was in many respects a superior work. However, easier-to-use format, lower price, better marketing, and the death of Raymond a year before the final edition of his work appeared, led to the ascendancy of Yeoman's Guide Book, the best-selling numismatic book of all time.

405 Raymond, Wayne et al. the COIN COLLECTOR SERIES. NUMBERS ONE-NINE. New York, 1940-1942. Nine illustrated monographs, bound in one volume.  Ex August 15, 1971 Katen Fuld sale, lot 427. The pictorial section features 2 pages of "Illustrations of Private Gold Issues Taken from specimens in cabinet of John A. Beck, Esq." An interesting publication for its time, apparently the second edition, appears to be quite scarce. Shinkle consulted auction sale catalogues all the way back to 1855 to establish values, and from this he "compiled not a coin dealer, and does not make these bids or prices himself" referring buyers and sellers to the "List of Coin Dealers" at the end. Only thirteen dealers are listed, starting with Arnold Numismatic Co., ending with Farlin Zeiss.

 Sigler 2355. Ex April 9-10, 1971 Katen Noyes sale, lot 162. The Special Leatherbound Edition. Andrew Mason Smith was a wine merchant who moved to Philadelphia in 1875. Soon thereafter he started collecting coins and writing about them. This work preceded George Evans' history of the Mint. It culminated in 1885 in a larger work which, though probably superior to Evans, was soon superseded by it. A popular and attractive little volume, Coins and Coinage was still being published into the mid 1880s, and a great many varieties exist in disparate bindings. These are difficult to differentiate since the various editions are not clearly identified.

423 Smith, A. M. COINS AND COINAGE. THE UNITED STATES MINT... Philadelphia, 1881. 107, (1) pages, engraved title pasted to verso of front free flyleaf, text illustrations. Duodecimo: 19.5 x 12 cm. Clain-Stefanelli 12543. The first complete catalogue of coins in the Mint Collection, compiled by George Bull with the assistance of William E. Du Bois, assistant assayer and curator of the cabinet at the time. It is widely known by its spine title: The Mint Manual of Coins of All Nations. Given its wide usage and lightweight cloth covering, it is fairly unusual to find copies intact in the original binding. The attractive embossed coin plates represent the first extensive American use of this novel and attractive method of illustration.

In an October 10, 1931 letter to Michael Powells, sold in our 1993 American Numismatic Association sale, Venn recorded details of his four numismatic publications: "1915 — 'Large U. S. Cents,' the total edition of which was confined to 300 copies, of which 150 were distributed gratuitously to public libraries and book reviewers. Publication price was $1 per copy and the edition was exhausted by 1916. 1916 — 'United States Half Cents.' This edition also was confined to 300 copies, 150 for free distribution as above and 150 for sale at 50 cents per copy, the publication price. This edition was exhausted by 1917. In 1919 Mr. R. Thomas... had the two monographs mentioned above reprinted and also included in the book two previously unpublished monographs of mine. I believe the total issue was 500 copies.... In 1921 Mr. Norman Schultz (sic)... published a booklet I wrote for him entitled 'U. S. Coins.' Of these quite a number were sold... but I am unable to give you and information as to the total issue." Current survival rates for all four publications appear to be unusually low if the above publication figures are accurate.

"The price of the Referendum Souvenir is $1²⁵ a piece"

492 (Zerbe, Farran). ANS CORRESPONDENCE FILES. COPIES OF ZERBE'S CORRESPONDENCE ON LESHER DOLLARS. Early xerographic copies of the original correspondence, 1900-1944, mainly to or from Farran Zerbe. One hundred seventeen 8.5 x 11 inch sheets, loosely bound (some sections paper-clipped) in a file folder. The above title is taken from the ink inscription found on the file folder tab. (500.00)

Included are copies of a Nov. 17, 1900 letter to N. Vreeland from Joseph Lesher, reading: "Yours of the 13th at hand. The price of the Referendum Souvenir is $1²⁵ a piece. I could send C.O.D. if you like"; four very interesting 1918 letters to Zerbe from Denver numismatist C. W. Cowell, reporting, among other things, on new acquisitions resulting from his advertisements in Colorado newspapers, noting that, from the limited response, that Lesher dollars "must be very scarce"; twenty-eight sheets of correspondence to and from B. Max Mehl, including rubbings and handwritten notes. Some excerpts, on various topics, follow: Jan. 23, 1919 - "When my health is better and I feel more settled will follow up regarding contributing to the Monthly. I do not care to use my name in connection with space filling melange but with original and constructive compositions with meat in them"; January 27, 1919 - "I have just secured the 'final' Collection of Mr. Granberg"; March 4, 1919 - "I herewith return the $50 you sent me for the NUMISMATIC MONTHLY, as I have discontinued the magazine for the time being owing to the enormous amount of time that it requires... Also... Getting out the magazine so late every month caused so many complaints that I came to the conclusion that if continued in that manner, the prestige or good feeling that I may have created through the magazine would all be lost shortly"; March 4, 1919 - "Of course I would be interested in the purchase of the Huddart collection... The collector who assisted me in purchasing the Gilhouse Collection received a check of $500.00 from me"; March 10, 1919 - "Since last writing you, I have reconsidered the matter regarding the NUMISMATIC MONTHLY and shall not discontinue it... Like my return from my move to New York, I shall resume the NUMISMATIC MONTHLY with new vigor and will do my best to make it even more valuable and interesting than heretofore"; March 11, 1919 - "It occurred to me that since the American Journal of Numismatics goes to what may be, a limited number of collectors, that a great portion of the coin collectors who do not receive this Journal would appreciate and value those excellent articles of yours especially regarding the Lesher's... I was wondering whether my plan to republish these articles in the NUMISMATIC MONTHLY..."; May 23, 1919 - "Not hearing from you to the contrary, I took the liberty of publishing the Lesher article in the May issue of the NUMISMATIC MONTHLY..."; May 26, 1919 - "While I have not received a copy of your Monthly this year I have just seen the May issue. It is with extraordinary surprise and displeasure that I note your publication of my story on the Lesher pieces... You have taken more interest in the Lesher series, have handled more specimens and have among your good patrons more collectors of Lesher than any other dealer. In consideration of this I would have welcomed a critical review of the article. Your complete reprint 'Lies the Society what ever additional sale Lesher might have commanded for its Journal and rob me of the pleasure and satisfaction I anticipated in the personal disposition of the reprints'; July 9, 1919 - "I enclose pencil rubbings of the pieces you asked about [Bryan Money auction lots]; 1921 correspondence with William Hesselin concerning four Lesher pieces, 'certainly an extraordinary lot. I have all the varieties...'; an October 10, 1932 letter from Mehl, noting 'The Newcomer 1804 silver dollar has also been disposed of'; a November 5, 1932 letter from Mehl concerning 'your bids just received for my sale of next Tuesday... I feel that you will be satisfied with the state of preservation of the Lesher for the reason that Mr. Briggs had already complained that I underestimated them. But that is the usual procedure we must expect the owner complains about undercataloging and the buyer usually complains about the coins being overcatalogued'; 1934 correspondence with Charles H. Fischer concerning a 'W. F. White Mercantile Lesher piece,' of which Zerbe observes that 'You should check up on this piece. I believe that you will agree with me that the imprint is engraved, and in my judgment not a very good job at that... I have been informed that there was a regularly stamped imprint specimen in the Mann collection'; 1934 correspondence with B. G. Johnson 'regarding the considerable number of Lesher pieces, formerly owned by Mr. Cowell of Denver, and sold by Mehl, all of which I believe were purchased on an open bid 'all or none' to the late Mr. Brand.' Johnson responds that the "Leshner pieces are not yet worked into shape to offer. Unfortunately these like everything else in the collection have had to be split into two parts and divided between the two brothers...if you are looking for something special let me know and I will see if I can find it for you in the Brand collection"; 1934 correspondence to and from Mrs. J. A. Leshner, reading in part: "I have vivid recollections of a pleasant Sunday afternoon with you and Mr. Leshner. It is unfortunate, for your sake at least, that he could not have been spared to more years of companionship...I continue to be interested in adding any of Mr. Leshner's products that come my way. Of the collectors who I believe called on Mr. Leshner; Mr. Cowell and Mr. Mann, both of Denver, have passed on. Mr. Briggs, of Lisbon, Iowa, is still active...At the time I called on Mr. Leshner I obtained from his (sic) some of the dies (block of iron with device engraved on them) that were used in striking the pieces. There were other dies that he retained. Do you have them or know what became of them?"; also included is correspondence from H. O. Mann, C. E. Briggs, Norman Shultz, J. G. Anderson, William L. Major, O. L. Berggren, and H. K. Crofoot.

Ex June 13-15, 1967 New Netherlands sale, lot 117, described therein as follows: "Invaluable to any serious numismatist interested in other than the regular coinage series. A book of extreme importance. The origins, development, and historical aspects of colonial to modern (nineteenth century) American Heraldry are explained and illustrated, and a Glossary is included that explains practically every heraldic term likely to be encountered. The chapter on Colonial Societies and American Orders complements the data given in the work by Hood & Young, while the data on American Seals (from British to Territorial and State), would be of use to the collector interested in such diverse fields as Colonial Paper Money and National Bank Notes."

It covers the entire range of numismatics, from ancient coins to United States and foreign issues, and its numerous monographs, though usually brief, often provide useful information unavailable elsewhere.

527 Elder, Thomas L. THE ELDER RARE COIN BOOK... New York, circa 1913. 4 pages, illustrated. Tabloid format: 32 x 24 cm. Two fold-marks, a trifle dusty. Near fine. (25.00)

An apparently scarce flyer, the first we recall ever having seen, promoting this popular publication. Terming it "the greatest work of the kind ever issued," and, inaccurately, "of Quarto Size," copies are offered in "Paper Cover" for $1.00, "Cloth Bound" for $1.50, and (in purple ink stamp) a "Cheap edition" for 75¢.

528 Elder, Thomas L., Editor. THE ELDER MAGAZINE. DEVOTED CHIEFLY TO COINS AND COIN COLLECTING VOLUME I, NOS. 1-12. New York, January-December, 1910. Twelve numbers in eleven, as published, lacking only the final issue. 20; 11, (1); 16; 16; 18; (2) [last leaf blank]; 16; 15, (1); 18; (2) [last leaf blank]; (8) [Convention Number], 15, (1); 24; 20 pages. Sewn to form a single volume, with a thin strip of maroon cloth serving as a spine, a few issues once folded. First and last page a bit worn and dusty, else fine. (450.00) Ex J. de Lagerberg, with his ink stamp on the first page of several issues; ex May 23-24, 1969 Katzen Fuld sale, lot 347. A nearly complete run of this very rare publication, complete with the pictorial section of issue 9, depicting get-togethers at the 1910 American Numismatic Convention. In his preface, Elder writes: "The Numismatic Philistine is no more. Doubtless the mourners will be few. While it may have performed a few real services for the cause of Numismatics, its political 'murmurs,' had they continued might have eventually 'raised the roof' instead of accomplishing reforms." One can tell that Elder made a real effort to reduce the tension between himself and ANA officials ("This magazine will refrain from taking sides this year in any political nomination), though at times he cannot restrain himself, complaining, for example, in one issue about the editorial content of The Numismatist ("It is high time to run a blue pencil through some of the impertinent, not to say unauthorized, criticism such as was indulged in the recent issue. Is the official organ getting to be a numismatic 'yellow journal'?" and, in another, he reports "Suppression of Important Numismatic News" (the Elder firm's advertisement for the Mougey sale was not printed in the July issue of The Numismatist and "Our $10. Has not been returned even"). The earlier numbers are largely filled with articles written by Edgar H. Adams and those interested in his numismatic specialties, U.S. and pioneer gold coins, colonialism, patterns, etc., will find it a source of useful information. Additionally, it contains a number of other interesting articles, along with seldom-encountered photographs of numismatic gatherings. All in all a fascinating publication, though relatively little-known due to its general availability.

529 FOWLER'S STAMP AND COIN AGE. VOLUME I, NUMBERS 1-8. Chicago: Edited and Published by Henry Ades Fowler, January-August, 1912. 132 pages, illustrated. Small quarto. Original printed pink card covers. Fine. (100.00)

Ex August 8-9, 1968 Colby Ritzman sale, lot 6. Not in Bourne. Although philatelic content predominates, this apparently scarce publication features much of interest on the Chicago coin collecting scene. Included are Ben Green's reports on Chicago Numismatic Society meetings; a fairly lengthy, sometimes critical account of Ben Green's LXV Sale ("E. Michael was present... The Chicago devotees seem cent mad... T. E. Leon was there in the interest of the Chicago Coin Co... The gold did not do well..."). "The Symbolism of Our National Currency," a paper by Fames Mac Veagh read before the Chicago Numismatic Society; a report and full-page illustration of the May 3, 1912 Chicago Numismatic Society 100th meeting Banquet including, among those depicted, T. E. Leon,

Ben G. Green, H. O. Granberg, Judson Brenner, J. H. Ripstra, Edw. and Fred Michael (Fowler notes that "the two principal collectors failed to put in an appearance at all, namely Virgil M. Brand and W. F. Dunham"); reports on Michael & Bro. coin sales; a fine full-page portrait and biography of Fred Michael, also an illustration of the firm's storefront; etc.

530 GUTTAG'S COIN BULLETIN. New York: Gutttag Bros., 1928-1929. Vol. 6, Nos. 1, 3-10; Vol. 7, Nos. 1-6. Fifteen numbers, as published in eleven. Self-covered as issued, some covers dusty. (45.00)

Prior issues, issued mainly as stapled duplicated typescript sheets, are rarely encountered (vide lot 900, October 15, 1994 Kolbe Sale 60 for an extensive descriptive listing).

531 HARZFELD'S LIST COINS, MEDALS, ETC., FOR SALE. VOL. I, NO. I. Philadelphia: S. K. Harzfeld, May, 1878. 4 pages. Quarto. Self-covered as issued, a trifle worn and dusty. Folded. (also) HARZFELD'S NUMISMATIC CIRCULAR, NO. 2. Philadelphia: S. K. Harzfeld, July 1877. 16 pages. Self-covered as issued, a bit discolored. (35.00)

The first publication is autographed in pencil by L. F. Wood, and features an article on "Washington Masonic Medals." In the second publication, Harzfeld calls into question the correctness of W. Elliott Woodward's description of a "Love Thaler" in his fifth semi-annual sale, noting that "As to Mr. Woodward's remark, it proved nothing at all to me. It is not the general custom of compilers of coin catalogues in this country, to prepare them in a scientific way as in Europe—but to make them as attractive as possible for the momentary purpose."

532 KOSOFF'S COIN BULLETIN. NUMBERS 1-20. Encino, 1954-1961. 184 pages, illustrated. A complete set, excepting only the final 4 page issue. Self-covered as issued, numbers 1-8 with mailing covers (all issued in that format?). Fine. (100.00)

The successor to Numismatic Gallery Monthly, following the Kosoff-Krengberg breakup. The early issues are mostly ex Melvin Fuld, one is ex Kenneth Bressett, another ex Smithsonian Institution.

533 Mason & Co., Publisher. MASON'S COIN AND STAMP COLLECTORS' MAGAZINE. VOLUME III. Philadelphia, 1869. (2), 142 pages, text illustrations, Photographic Gallery plate. 22.5 x 15 cm. Nicely bound in old green cloth, gilt, original printed wrappers bound in throughout, faint vertical crease mark in top third of plate. Fine. (200.00)

Inc address stamp of W. I. Rozmin, Philatelic Literature, on rear pastedown. The fine photographic plate depicting forty-eight major coin collectors and dealers of the day is textually complete (often the text at top or bottom has been trimmed by the binder's blade) and is a decidedly above average example in terms of condition and clarity. Notable numismatists depicted include J. J. Mickley, M. W. Dickson, Robert T. Davis, Wm. J. Jenks, Wm. Jester, J. W. Haseltine, J. A. Bolen, F. M. Yeager, E. Mason, and A. C. Kline.

534 Mason & Co., Publisher. MASON'S COIN AND STAMP COLLECTORS' MAGAZINE. VOLUME III. Philadelphia, 1869. (2), 142 pages, text illustrations, lacking the Photographic Gallery plate. 23 x 15.5 cm. Contemporary red three-quarter morocco, lettered in gilt, top page edges gilt, most wrappers bound in, extremities a bit worn but binding sound, internally fine. (75.00)

Ex November 27-28, 1971. Katen Fuld sale, lot 776. Of considerable numismatic significance. An article entitled "Coinage at the United States Mint" records the total amount of coinage issued at the Mint, noting that a similar statement was to be placed "under the corner stone of a new edifice about to be erected at Philadelphia for the use of the Mint." Later on it is noted that "We suppose it is now intended to extend the operations of the establishment, and to furnish a greater amount of American coin, for the circulation of the country. We wish that more attention may be given to providing in larger proportions, those denominations of coins which are most needed, and most convenient for circulation. The gold coins at present are of little use, as they do not remain in circulation. Those which are most needed are the dimes and half dimes." There are several interesting reports of finds of "Virginia Gold" and "South Carolina Gold," also North Carolina gold, on the first page, and the publisher, Rufus Colton avers that "We are apprehensive that this precious metal is destined to be as common as lead; and then what will become of the currency? An Eagle will be reduced in value almost to the value of its poor relation, the humble Cent, and be prized more on account of its beauty than its wealth."

Not in Attinelli, the American Numismatic Society Library Auction Catalogue, or the 1994-1995 Bowers and Merena sales. McKay 889. Gengerke, 8th edition, page 9: "few numismatic lists." The catalogue features, within a decorative oblong frame, the following ink stamp on the lower front wrapper: "ORDERS FILLED BY C.B. NORTON LITERARY AGENT/NEW-YORK." Norton appears to have played a prominent role in the conduct of the sale, which, fittingly enough, took place on a day made even more legendary earlier in the century by Washington Irving, one of this country's most famous literary giants. Norton's name appears first on the list of agents taking orders for the sale, and a full-page advertisement, "offering his services as Agent for Libraries," occupies the back cover. Most remarkably best known for Norton's Literary Letter 1857-1860, Charles B. Norton was the brother of the first president of the American Numismatic Society, Frank H. Norton, and his interest in numismatics is confirmed by several price listings and interesting articles on the topic found in the early issues. Among items of numismatic interest listed in the catalogue at hand are lot 91: "Hart. John. Signer. Continental Bill for one shilling signed. 1776," lot 10: "A Discourse Concerning the Interests of the British Plantations in America. (1731) [of 1288] Continental Money. Ten specimens. Various. Pennsylv. and Delaware in fine order." lot 59: "100 Specimens Continental Money. Various. 1774 and 75. Continental Money. Ten specimens. Various. Pennsylv. and Delaware in fine order." and lot 79: "Continental Bill. State of Massachusetts set in Bay."

Granberg came to America in 1768, apparently including a family connection with the recipient of the catalogue. The collection belonged to John K. Curtis, who, according to Attinelli was "one of the greatest of the field as a dealer in this country."

The collection of, and apparently catalogued by, C. A. Leveridge, who Attinelli dispatches with deadly wit (descriptions of the lots he refers to have been added, as here, within brackets): "Mr. GONTIEM 578000; who, a number of years ago, offered an extremely curious, rare, and unique collection at public sale, but, at the last minute, withdrew it entirely, possibly with a feeling of contempt for his unappreciative audience, must have rejoiced at the wisdom he displayed at that time in acting as he did, thus avoiding the 'laughter' which befell his more rash successor. What must have been his 'phelings' to see lot 15 sold for 'Five Cents' [One Cent, Feuchtwanger's Composition, 1837]; lot 53 for 'Three Cents' [Gullulus. Rev. all different animals]; lot 126 for '25 Cents' [1834 do. (Cent) Nearly uncirculated Proof]; lot 165 for 'eight cents' 1856 do. (Half Cent) Uncirculated Proof, scarce]; and similar prices for other equally rare pieces, and some heretofore, unknown coins and medals. We are left in ignorance of the name of the gentleman, to whom Mr. Lillendahl sold the catalogue to or what price he obtained for it. (vide 859) [Wm. A. Lillendahl of Tremont, N. Y. Sold catalogue of Bangs, Merwin & Co. 1863; fine condition. It would afford the writer much pleasure to see the catalogue alluded to in lot 585. Shrest Catalogue of W. 705 Chapman, S. H. & H. CATALOGUE OF A COLLECTION OF UNITED STATES COINS AND PATTERN PIECES, ETC. OF A PROMINENT PHILADELPHIAN (DU BOIS) NOW DECEASED... COINS OF THE UNITED STATES, GOLD, SILVER AND COPPER OF GEORGE EAVENSON... Philadelphia, April 16-17, 1903, (4), 72 pages, 1392 lots. Two copies, both in the original paper covers, a trifle worn and dusty, internally fine. (50.00)

The arrangement and style of the gilt-flocked lettering on the front covers of the two catalogues present here differs. On one, "FOREIGN COINS AND MEDALS" appears on a single line, the three words all in capitals are sans serif, and the "and" in lower case serif letters slants down from left to right. On the other, "FOREIGN COINS AND MEDALS" are arranged on two lines, all in equal sized capital letters with serifs. Internally, the catalogues appear to be identical.

706 Cogan, Edward. PRICED CATALOGUE OF THE PRIVATE COLLECTION OF UNITED STATES CENTS, THE PROPERTY OF EDWARD COGAN, SOLD AT HIS STORE BY PRIVATE BIDDINGS, THE 1ST NOVEMBER 1858. Philadelphia, 1863.

(4) pages, (77) lots, printed prices realized. 24.5 x 14 cm. Original printed tan wrappers a trifle chipped, once lightly folded. (75.00)
 Adams page 18: "The first four sales in the Cogan series are not catalogs in the standard sense; rather they are later (1861-62) reprints from single manuscripts available in Cogan's store. Local patrons used this list to scout for coins of their choice; bids in these cases were submitted in sealed envelopes which were all then opened on the appointed day." Probably around a hundred copies of this, the first Cogan sale, were printed. It marked the beginning of the widespread collecting of large cents and established Cogan as "the father of U. S. coin collecting."

 The only example in yellow covers we recall ever having seen. To our knowledge, the small hound which surfaced in Boston at the American Numismatic Association Convention in 1982 were all in light brown or tan covers, as have been other copies seen over the past thirty years.

The set of U. S. Cents being the finest ever offered in any one collection." A landmark in American numismatics.

Thick Paper Copy, except for the first 4 pages, as are all plated examples. Catalogued by Professor Anthon. Only the second numismatic auction sale in the United States issued with photographic plates. John Allan was a Scottish immigrant to New York City who lived to be 87. Well over one thousand lots of large cents are "featured" in this sale. That Cogan was disenchanted with the task is evident by his descriptions. The first lot, a 1793 Wreath cent is described as being "corroded, barely fair" and from there it only gets worse. The 1794s start out as "poor" and soon descend to "unusually poor." All of the 1797s are termed "miserably poor" and the two 1799s are hardly better, the first has the "date only legible—a miserable specimen" and the second, Cogan opines "I think original, but could not guarantee its barely fair." A second run begins with "1793, wreath battered and wretchedly poor." And on it goes.

738 Cogan, Edward. CATALOGUE OF COINS AND MEDALS, COMPRISING AMERICAN AND FOREIGN GOLD, SILVER AND COPPER, TOGETHER WITH WASHINGTON AND POLITICAL PIECES, &c. New York: Bangs, Merwin & Co., April 22, 1870. 22, (2) pages, 556 lots, partly priced in pencil with buyers' names, virtually complete for lots 27-248. Self-covered and sewn as issued, once folded. (50.00)

Apparently scarce, perhaps due to the pedestrian nature of the content; indeed, Adams finds nothing worthy of comment. Nonetheless, a number of numismatic Brahmins took part in the sale, including Crosby, Levick, Cleary, Sampson, Haines, Mason, Cleveland, Miller, Oram, Anthon, Cogan, and Warner.

739 Cogan, Edward. *CATALOGUE OF AN EXCEEDINGLY INTERESTING AND VALUABLE COLLECTION OF SILVER MEDALS OF ALL NATIONS, TOGETHER WITH RARE CROWNS, ETC., FORMERLY THE SILVER CABINET OF THE LATE MR. Attinelli page 65 "This collection was one exceedingly interesting to American collectors... Adams A- Landmark medals: NY State medals, Medical medals, Fine Canadian, Lincoln medals (penn 1796 $2.50) Ex F. T. Lesick with his autograph at the head of the front wrapper, and his stamp on title. Loosely laid in is a detailed sheet in his hand, mainly listing whereabouts in the sale of interest or desired for his collection. An interesting pencil note at also inserted in the last page "Cogan read an order from a Berlin Collector, dated some $100000 having some most extraordinary... This observation underscores the considerable over-valuation of the time in Germany in the serious collecting of North American coins and medals... and also helps to explain the prohibition of such items reaching the market on following years from the somewhat widely locus of Berlin, by the Washington at this time from... reaching a high peak in 1880 October 1884 sale where the Chapman brothers acquired the Adams... Dwyer... collection, along with a number of other important American coins..."

A fine assemblage, comprising some 80% of Edward Cogan's emissions, with a number of those not present here available singly among the preceding lots. Adams pages 17-19: "The Cogan series of seventy auction catalogs... is important if only because it embodies the deliberate thought of one of our hobby's great pioneers. However, it is also important from at least two other aspects: quality of the material described and special features of the catalogs themselves... the challenge of assembling the work of Edward Cogan is a formidable one. Accomplishment of the challenge, even if only in part, will prove ample reward for the effort invested."

McKay 1029. The back of the rear wrapper is entirely devoted to an advertisement promoting a "Great Coin Sale! The most important ever held in America... Of the celebrated American Numismatic Collection. Formed by John F. McCoy, Esq. of New York City, and now owned by W. Elliot Woodward..." Perhaps Woodward was unsure of the success of the McCoy sale, and intended to "cover his bets" by the sale of his private library the week previous. The volumes offered in the sale are well-catalogued (by Woodward), and are summarized thus on the front wrapper: "Most of the Books are the best editions, and in elegant bindings. Amongst them will be found a large number of PICKERING'S PUBLICATIONS, WALTON & COTTON'S COMPLETE ANGLER, THE ALDINE POETS, &c; &c; an unusually large number of works on American Local History; a curious collection of Criminal Trials; many Illustrated Books; AUDUBON'S BIRDS OF AMERICA; AUDUBON & BACHMAN'S QUADRUPEDS; LONDON ART JOURNAL; LAWATER'S PHYSIOGNOMY; HUME'S HISTORY OF ENGLAND; BOWSER'S Folio Edition. Attinelli page 88. The first three editions, apparently all issued, of this very interesting series of fixed price lists published by one of the earliest American coin dealers. Scarce. Curtis' stock of numismatic books is quite impressive and, though dominated by foreign works, he stocked, as they were published, most if not all of the current American titles, including Hickox (bound and unbound), Bushnell, Dickson ("The Best Work yet published"), Riddell, Snowden, etc. His stock of coins was quite varied, featuring American and foreign coins and tokens, and became more cosmopolitan over time, with the last list also including ancient coins.

Original brown card covers detached, spine strip missing. (75.00)

An interesting sales room copy of this major sale, apparently annotated by H. Niklewicz, whose name is printed in ink on a slip pasted to the front cover. His major collection (with name anglicized to "Niklewicz") was sold in two 1916 sales by Elder. Adams A-4: "Superb colonials: Rosa Sine Spina, Higley's (2), Virginia shilling, Castorland in gold, Disme, silver cent 16. Choice Washington patterns & silver. 1865 proof set, 54 to 520, in copper. 816 Ford Numismatic Publications. FIXED PRICE LIST. NUMISMATIC LITERATURE, PAPER MONEY, CONFEDERATE & SOUTHERN STATE BONDS. Rockville, Centre (1966) 16 pages, illustrated. (also) Ford Numismatic Publications. NUMISMATIC LITERATURE MAIL BID SALE. Rockville, Centre, April-May 1966. (3), 29, (1) pages (covers included in pagination), 668 lots, original fold sheet bound in. Both subsequent in the original printed card covers. Very fine. (30.00)

This enterprise was conceived by John A. Ford, Jr. and subsequently passed into the hands of his son, James, and his daughter, Werner Ameltinger. Many of the fine descriptions in this book's preface for the dead and now lost to history. In the first issue, Ford's first issue, he includes Harry Bass's notes, and red ink, recording items already in the collection. The story of Harry's visit on a cold winter day in 1967 to Ford Numismatic Publications, and the subsequent sale of the collection, is a wonderfully told story. In the Fall, Winter 1980 issue of The Asylum, Ford wrote in part: "I want to show you how dedicated Harry was early on. The Asylum must have been about 10 degrees upstairs when the books were, and there must have been 100 degrees in the books. He was looking at books and auction catalogs, and - moving catalogues of the day. His nose and hands were blue, but he was having a ball. Harry got the bug for numismatic literature that afternoon and evening. He is one of the few well-to-do collectors that I've ever met who became conversant with numismatic literature. Most people who have the funds and the wherewithal to be real collectors, and who buy expensive stuff, don't have the time to read. I assume that Harry has the time, because he surely will have gone after the books. I think that he uses them the same way I do."

817 Fraser, C. E. CATALOGUE OF A COLLECTION OF COINS AND MEDALS... New York, March 27, 1879. 36 pages, 708 lots. Three copies, first with errata slip, all priced in ink, and in original printed wrappers. The first is trimmed (as issued), the second is untrimmed, and the third is an untrimmed "large paper" copy, as follows: 23 x 15, 24 x 16 & 27.5 x 17.5 cm. First two catalogues in the original printed gray wrappers; the last with original smooth green front wrapper, printed in gilt (now oxidized), lacking rear wrapper and pages 13-36. (75.00)

The following note appears on the rear wrapper of the two above copies of the catalogue: "Fifty Copies of this Catalogue have been printed on extra fine and heavy paper, with Heliotype illustrations and wide margin for Pricing. The same will be furnished neatly Priced, to all desiring them, immediately after the sale at TWO DOLLARS per copy." The above fragment confirms that priced copies on "extra fine and heavy paper" were indeed issued though we have never heard of a copy with plates. Neither it, nor indeed, copies on large paper, are recorded in the American Numismatic Society Auction Catalogue, Adams, Gengerke, or Davis. Perhaps the two dollar fee and, more significantly, the critique in the April 1879 issue of the American Journal of Numismatics, resulted in too few or no orders. The Journal attributes the collection to "a part of the cabinet of Mr. J. E. Barratt," and observes: The Catalogue, 36 pages, is disfigured by more typographic errors than we have seen in any similar production for a long time." The post-sale report in the following issue is no less scathing, closing with: "Beside those named there were scarcely a dozen pieces in the sale which brought $5.00. The 708 lots sold for something under $650.00."

Unique Haseltine Bid Book Featuring the "Berg" 1804 Dollar

855 Haseltine, John W. CENTENNIAL COIN AND CURIOSITY SALE. PART I. Philadelphia, March 30, 1876. 27, (1) pages, 530 lots, priced in pencil with buyers' names and absentee bidders' commissions throughout, along with other annotations, key to absentee bidders on page 27. Original printed violet wrappers a little worn and discolored, once folded. (250.00)

Inscribed in ink at head of upper wrapper: Bids Private/John W. Haseltine/1225 Chestnut St/Philad. Ex Yale University Library, with their ink stamp on the front wrapper. Adams B: "1804 $1. RRR pattern, for many the first appearance." How times have changed. Only four lines of descriptive text are devoted to the 1804 silver dollar featured in the sale, and it is not even mentioned on the title, nor in Haseltine's introductory "Notice to Collectors," where he merely notes "These Centennial sales, of which this is the first, will be continued during the Exposition, a few weeks apart, and will be mostly of very fine specimens selected and set apart for this special purpose, and are the best of several collections that I have purchased in the past year." Absentee participants at the sale placing bids on the 1804 dollar were "Hf" @ 100-; "Hn" @ $310; and "Bg" @ $400. "H" (Haseltine) purchased the coin for "395.00," presumably for "Bg" at $5.00 under his limit (the opening price is not given). The key to absentee buyers identifies "Hf" as "Huffman," "Hn" as "Haines," followed by the note: "write to him at once;" and "Bg" (the last entry) as "Berg." Newman and Bressett attribute the Class III "Berg Specimen" as follows: "O. H. Berg of Baltimore is said to have obtained this dollar in 1875 from Messrs. Koch & Co., of Vienna." Dave Bowers, in his recent book on the topic, under "10. Berg Specimen (Garrett Collection coin)," notes that the pedigree given for the coin "is conjectural before circa 1875." The March 30, 1876 Centennial Coin and Curiosity Sale catalogue present here establishes, for the first time, the true pedigree of the "Berg" coin, and also corrects recent conjecture concerning the "Adams Specimen," appearing in the 1984 Stack's sale of the Amor Caner collection.

(4), 130 pages, 1920 lots, prices realized list bound in. Brown quarter baby calf, gilt, original printed front wrapper bound in, spine a trifle rubbed. Fine. (150.00)

Clain-Stefanelli 12292. A landmark sale. In his prefatory remarks, Haseltine writes: "At a future time, if I should decide to issue a work upon this subject, each variety will be given a name to more easily distinguish it, and plates be given of those pieces that have but slight differences, in order that collectors could more readily determine them." This work never came to fruition, and the "Haseltine Type Table Catalogue" served as the standard work on die varieties for over half a century. The descriptions are so detailed and meticulous that a separate work on the topic, apart from the addition of plates, would have been largely redundant. Three separate works were ultimately required to supersede it (Brown-ling, Beistle and Bolender).

A note in the addenda reads: "The attention of Collectors is especially directed to the following pieces, many of which are exceedingly rare and some have never before been offered at either Public or Private Sale. I have never seen duplicates of the following seven Twenty Cent Pieces, and they are of such extreme rarity that the Cabinet of United States Mint does not contain them." Other rarities in the addenda include additional patterns, historical medals, and a silver Confederate cent.

862 Haseltine, John W. CATALOGUE OF THE VERY FINE COLLECTION OF UNITED STATES Dimes AND HALF DIMES, VERY RARE PATTERN PIECES, INCLUDING 1872 AND 1875 COMMERCIAL DOLLARS. See also PROS. 14, 15. Bass and Marvin sale, lot 235. Atinelli page 42, where it is noted that "The books and papers of Mr. Hatch were all destroyed in the great fire in 1892." (personal nineteenth century numismatic publication) such as this generally saw limited local circulation. When an number of examples have survived, it is often because a small issue was ordered much later (when it was more apt to be appreciated) or an owner's rescue. The fact that it has been by Atinelli seems to have precluded that possibility and may help to explain the scarcity of this broadside.

Front cover inscribed: "Bid Book Private/Henry Chapman." Chapman appears not to have attended the sale and his rather extensive bid sheet is loosely laid in the catalogue. The bid sheet is addressed to "Mr. Macalister" and is signed by Chapman. Over 100 bids are recorded in ink by Chapman, a few with detailed instructions for Macalister, and the prices realized are recorded in pencil, presumably by Macalister.

Hudson Chapman, who presumably acted on his behalf at the sale (his bid on lot 3 - "Pine Tree shilling, small planchet, C. 3, excessively rare, about the finest specimen (sic) known..." - was "Unlimited." The second catalogue also includes Gaylord's $264.33 invoice, and carbon copy of his bids, presumably sent directly to Hesslein. Major purchases in this sale included several U. S. gold coins, a "1652 Pine Tree shilling Crosby 5-B lge planchet" @ $35.50, and a nice "1878" Crosby @ $31.50.

TO BE SOLD FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE CHARITY ORGANIZATION SOCIETY AND THAT OF A FEW OTHER SOCIETIES WITH WHICH THEY CO-OPERATE. New York, April 20, (1894). 30 pages, blank leaf, 516 detailed listings, 2 large fold-out half-tone plates, one depicting 104 rings with intaglios or cameos, the other illustrating a large and ornate gold necklace, bracelet, locket and sleeve buttons incorporating intaglios or cameos. Original printed pale green card covers a trifle worn and dusty. Near fine. (100.00)
At least one numismatic item is included. No. 509 being a 1633 bronze medal of Henry III and Christina Maria Augusta. The collection was presented to the Society and a few other kindred groups to be sold for their mutual benefit. The cabinet, mainly consisting of antique and medieval intaglios and cameos, was the result of some twenty years' research of a gentleman who has resided abroad during that period. The gems were catalogued and appraised by the then Curator of the New York Metropolitan Museum of Art and were to be sold piece by piece at the prices affixed under the management of the Johnson firm, at the Society's building, starting on the date indicated, "unless they be purchased as a whole before the sale begins." Not found in Sinkankas and apparently very rare.

Several catalogues with mostly minor faults. Generally nice, fine copies. Also included is the firm's Gold Price List No. 12. (500.00)

Mostly ex November 27-28, 1971 Katen Fuld sale. An extensive run, virtually complete from sales 81 through 191, probably missing only sale 180, the others going unreported in Gengerke, presumably the result of sale number "inflation." Several later gaps also appear to be numbering errors on the part of the firm. Extensive runs of Kagin sales rarely come to market.

Includes Katen Sale 28

883 Katen, Frank J.: Milford Coin & Stamp Co./Frank and Laurese Katen. PUBLIC AND MAIL BID CATALOGUES. NOS. 1-18, 20-31 & 36. New Haven et al., 1946-1971. Thirty-one original catalogues. Nos. 4-7 in the original matching brown cloth, gilt, No. 8 (1948

A. exhibition catalogue of "Numismatic Americana," inscribed to Harry Bass; etc. (500.00) The auction sale catalogues comprise a practical bibliography/valuation guide covering the entire range of rare and old print numismatic literature. Twelve auction sales were issued as part of The Numismatic Bookeller series, and only one of each is present here (i.e. Sale Numbers 16, 20, 22, 24, 25, 27, 30, 31, 33, 34, 37 & 39). Seldom offered complete, print runs of The Bookeller were often barely adequate, occasionally inadequate, and, due to their modest appearance, many appear not to have been saved.

Harry Bass sale, dupli. autographed and heavily annotated. No. 10 of 100 copies issued with gold cap paper. Kolbe took home parts of the sale by telephone via Linda Ender. Full list of lots, including estimate and selling prices, with his numerous successful purchases marked A, B, C, D, E, and F, indicating whether they were "bought for ANS," or for "his own use." (Armand Champoux also participated in the sale by telephone via the phone bank of John Beigman), and apparently could not conceive that anyone would have any interest that he in lot 400 "Unique Manuscript of the First, Second & Fourth Major Issues." Three times it opened at $100; proceeding at least once to $10,000, but was outbid in part four bidding (via multiple telephone bids, the fault of the relatively unprepared auctioneer's four catalogues) caused it to be recopied twice, and is repeated herein. Harry Bass was ultimately successful at $8,000. Also included are photographs of some coins, including one of the 1840 and the American Numismatic Society, and general handwriting information on the 1840. A unique most interesting copy of a 1990 edition of the American Numismatic Society's Catalogue of the American Numismatic Library.

Attinelli page 17. Scarce. The sale featured "Norton's Literary Letter, No. 3, containing some valuable numismatic matter"; and copies of the 1859 Henry Bogert and Wm. Not in Gengerke. McKay 2966 lists the auction catalogue of the William Henry Post library and the second part of the Simeon Henry Remsen library, 2801 lots in all, starting on May 22, 1883. The above addenda was no doubt sold during the course of the sale. Among the ten numismatic lots offered are Libertas Americana, Lafayette, Erie Canal and Washington Crossing the Delaware medals, one lot of half cents, a fractional California gold coin, etc.

Printed postponement notice on blue stock tipped in on page 3. (100.00)

Very scarce. Attinelli notes that "The sale of this collection was postponed to the 20th, in consequence of three coin sales in this city, being fixed for one time, it was sensibly deemed wiser to postpone one of them." The first example we recall seeing with the printed postponement notice.

With Buyers' Names or Initials in Part One

905 Leon, Ponce de. CATALOGUE OF A LARGE COLLECTION OF ROMAN AND GREEK COINS FOR SALE AT MARKED PRICES. FIRST PART. COINS OF THE ROMAN REPUBLIC. SECOND PART. GOLD AND SILVER COINS OF THE ROMAN EMPIRE. New York, 1877. Two volumes. 35, (1); (37)-70 pages, 1616 listings in all, first part annotated in pencil with buyers' initials or names. First part lacking wrappers, second part in the original printed wrappers, both once lightly folded with some marginal chipping. (150.00)

The example of the first part of the Ponce de Leon fixed price list present here is notable in that it identifies a number of active collectors of ancient coins in the United States of America in the last quarter of the nineteenth century. Néstor Ponce de León was a well known coin dealer and antiquarian, operating in New York City during the last quarter of the nineteenth century, and this, it seems clear, was his own annotated copy of the catalogue. Names he records include Anthon, Balmanno, Betts, Case, Hart, Haseltine, and Smith, among others. Then, as now, numbers of ancient coin collectors in America comprised a sizeable number, though overweening interest in the national coinage over the last century and a half has lent itself to an underestimation of their importance and economic significance, despite the laudable, if also sometimes overweening, efforts of the American Numismatic Society and kindred groups. In his introduction, De Leon writes: "The collection we now offer for sale, undoubtedly the finest collection of ancient coins ever brought before the public of the United States... is a part of a large collection formed by a Cuban gentleman in a period of sixteen years, and was greatly derived from the public sales in Europe, a great number of the pieces catalogued coming from the famous collections of Lord Northwick, Dupré, Capranesi, Gaillard, Garcia de la Torre &

And have costed prices greatly higher than those now affixed to them." Whether Byzantine and Greek series were appeared is unknown, though only the two parts offered here are listed in the American Numismatic Society Dictionary Catalogue, and even they are seldom encountered.

906 Leonard & Co. CATALOGUE OF A VALUABLE COLLECTION OF AMERICAN COINS AND MEDALS, COMPRISING MANY EXTREMELY FINE AND RARE SPECIMENS, INCLUDING THE 1796 HALF DOLLAR, RARE PATTERN DOLLARS, AND OTHER PATTERN PIECES - 1791 AND 1792, AND OTHER RARE WASHINGTON PIECES, IN SPLENDID CONDITION... ALTOGETHER THE FINEST COLLECTION YET OFFERED HERE. Boston, May 30, 1860. 19, (1) pages, 627 lots. Original printed green wrappers. Near fine. (35.00)

Featured on page one, scarcely two months after formation, is a representation of the SCALE OF THE NUMISMATIC SOCIETY OF BOSTON. Though overshadowed by W. Elliot Woodward's first auction, conducted by Leonard & Co. a month later, this sale of material belonging to John K. Wiggins featured a fine collection of large cents, and, as claimed, was the finest collection at the time ever sold in Boston.

Woodward's Early Competition?

907 Leonard & Co. CATALOGUE OF RARE OLD BOOKS, ILLUSTRATED WORKS, ALMANACS, ELECTION, FUNERAL, DEDICATION, MANUSCRIPT AND MISCELLANEOUS SERMONS... THE PROPERTY OF CHARLES H. MORSE, ESQ., THE WELL KNOWN COLLECTOR. Boston, July 11-12, 1860. 27, (1) pages, 1400 lots. Once bound, first and last page a trifle dusty. (100.00)

Attinelli page 19. Gengerke page 121 (citing Attinelli). A perusal of the contents revealed no numismatic lots, though, buried amongst the dense text of interminable religious tracts and the like, are works to quicken the pulse of any rare book auctioneer, and, perhaps, a numismatic lot or two lurks therein as well, waiting to be discovered by a more persistent examiner. What is there of numismatic interest, however, is a long notice on the penultimate page, reading in part: "Charles H. Morse has removed his Old Curious Shop to No. 7 Scollay's Building, Boston, Entrance on Tremont Row, and has on exhibition and for sale, Washington Cents and Medals, Fine United States Cents (1793, 1799, 1804, and other Rare Dates), and Half Cents; Vermont (Rare Cies), Massachusetts Cents and Half Cents 1787 and 1788; Cents of Connecticut (Rare Cies), New York (various), New Jersey (some Rare), and Virginia. A large stock of American and Foreign Coins, Medals, Store Cards and Fancy Pieces... All the above articles brought sold and exchanged."

Postponed "upon the assassination of President Lincoln"

912 (Levick, Joseph N. T.). CATALOGUE OF AMERICAN COINS, MEDALS, TOKENS, PAPER MONEY, ETC., FROM J. N. T. LEVICK'S CABINET. New York: Bangs, Merwin & Co., W. H. Arthur, Printer and stationer, April 27-29, 1865. 35, (1), 37-38, 3, (1) pages, 1583 + 135 + 1 lots, largely printed in pencil (including the final section of coin catalogues), 23 x 15 cm. Original printed tan wrappers a trifle discolored. Near fine. (250.00)

A scarce, historically significant American auction sale catalogue. Only two appearances are recorded in Davis, Attinelli page 41: "The sale it was thought advisable to postpone, in consequence of the excited state of the entire people, consequent upon the assassination of President Lincoln by Junius B. Booth (sic), who had escaped, but was subsequently captured mortally wounded. This catalogue was printed and issued in several ways, with and without the part in which was the catalogue-portion of Mr. Levick's collection, also each separately; also, 12 copies of each printed on large paper. Mr. Levick, in consequence of the state of affairs, issued but few copies with the cover bearing the preceding date, the greater portion of the edition was stripped of its covers and replaced with a new one, bearing the following date [May 29-31], when the sale took place. Adams A-: "Season medal. Gem cents. Extraordinary store cards, 43 in silver. Copper 1794 $1. 1842-1847 proof sets. Political medals." The final lot of the sale, though described on page (36) of the catalogue as a "handsome numismatic cabinet, formerly the property of the late Mr. Neff, of Philadelphia," was to be sold after the catalogue: "In this copy of the catalogue, the purchaser is recorded as Strobridge, at $82.40. Both this copy of the catalogue, and the two to follow, feature the original sale date on the front of the catalogue. This copy, and the one immediately following, feature Edward Cogan's 1st April, 1865, and 4th April, 1865 testimonial letters printed on the inside front covers.

913 (Levick, Joseph N. T.). CATALOGUE OF AMERICAN COINS, MEDALS, TOKENS, PAPER MONEY, ETC., FROM J. N. T. LEVICK'S CABINET. New York, April 27-29, 1865. 37, (1), 38, 3, (1) pages, 1582 + 135 + 1 lots. 23 x 14.5 cm. Original printed tan wrappers a trifle discolored, taped at the spine, internally fine. (200.00)

Ex number 1 was to 196. Katen sale lot 603 at $50.00. This copy of the main catalogue ends as it was doubtless issued, at 1582 + 135 in page 45, with Neff's coin cabinet offered for sale on the bottom of that leaf, followed by the 138 lots of coin sale catalogues. In the preceding and following copies of the catalogue page 85 concludes the colonial paper money section of the sale, and page 97 abruptly begins with a heading of any kind, with final price lists and other obscure American numismatic publications. An obscure variety of the catalogue though it is alluded to in Attinelli. Presumably, it is the earliest issue. In the previous and subsequent issues of the catalogue, pages 37-38 is a single tipped-in sheet, not part of an integral signature, though it seems to have been added to the text before issuing. Both Cogan's and Adams appear to have listed this 1532 lot variety of the catalogue, but price pages 47-48 do not quite extend to the outer edges of the other pages. There are also some other small errors.

Special Edition Levick Sale?

914 (Levick, Joseph N. T.). CATALOGUE OF AMERICAN COINS, MEDALS, TOKENS, PAPER MONEY, ETC., FROM J. N. T. LEVICK'S CABINET. New York, April 27-29, 1865. Printed leaf, 35, (1), 37-38, 3, (1) pages, blank leaf, 1583 + 135 + 1 lots. 23 x 14.5 cm. Original printed stiff "coated" reddish brown wrappers, spine a trifle worn. Fine. (350.00)

This example of the catalogue, at 25 ounces, weighs approximately a half ounce more than the two preceding copies, probably not attributable in full to the added weight of the covers and the two conjugate leaves added at the beginning and end of the catalogue. Printed on the verso of the added leaf preceding the title are the two Cogan letters found printed on the inside front covers of the two copies of the catalogue listed above. Both the beginning and ending leaves were added after sewing, with their conjugate pasted to the relevant inside covers, accounting, at least in part, for their stiffness. Pages 37-38 are tipped-in, as mentioned previously.

915 Libbie & Co., Charles F. AUCTION SALES. Boston, November 19-20, 1878 & June 16, 1888. Both catalogues once bound, original printed wrappers present. (35.00)

916 Libbie & Co., Charles F. AUCTION SALES. Boston, March 18, 1879 & May 20, 1879. Both in the original printed wrappers and priced in red ink. (45.00)

The two sales were the last in the brief series catalogued by old-time Boston coin dealer Henry Cook.

917 Libbie, C. F. & Co. CATALOGUE OF THE HAIGH COLLECTION OF COINS, MASONIC MEDALS, ETC., COMPRISING AN EXTENSIVE COLLECTION OF AMERICAN AND FOREIGN GOLD, SILVER AND COPPER COINS, INCLUDING THE 1804 DOLLAR... Boston, October 28-29, 1901. (4), 74 pages, 1558 lots, priced in red ink with buyers' names and other annotations scattered throughout. Original printed red card covers, somewhat worn. (50.00)

A most interesting copy of this relatively obscure catalogue, featuring beyond buyers' names, a number of other "juicy" observations. Lot 333, the 1804 dollar, grading "Very good," was given the following pedigree in the catalogue: "From Col. Adams Collection, sold to Jubal Early; sold C. B. Cochran of Antrim, N. H., and sold with his collection of Dollars to Mason & Co., March 1889." Herein it is noted as being "withdrawn/altared date." Steigewiler bought the plugged 1794 dollar for $48, ditto the 1839 "Liberty seated" at $49. "Collins of Washington" bought lot 583, the set of large cents, at $200, "a big price," and Mitchelson purchased the 1852 USAOG octagon $50 for $96. "Broker Alexander got most of foreign gold," and "Darby got most of the foreign silver." Lot 1347, a Higley threepence, was "withdrawn," being "a Boelen," and on it goes.

925 Mason & Co. COIN SALES. Philadelphia & New York, (1868)-1872. Seventeen catalogues, Adams/Gengerke sale numbers 1-17. Octavo and quarto. All in the original printed paper covers. Sale 1 is priced with buyers' names or initials for the first 200 lots, sale 2 is priced and features a great many buyers' names in the latter part of the catalogue; and sales 4, 6, 7, 11, 12, 13, 14 & 16 are fully handpriced. (400.00)

A complete run of the "early" Mason series, issued during his prime. Eight years elapsed before the firm held its next sale, in Boston, and the quality never achieved the prior level. An interesting and important series, highlighted by the 1872 Fawcett catalogue, "The high point... of Mason's entire career," according to Adams. He further notes that "Mason's first run of seventeen sales took place at a time when the Mint was actively striking (and restricting) a wide variety of pattern issues. Thus, it is not surprising that the series is rich in this material, including a number of first appearances. Three sales—J. C. Randall, the June 17, 1870 auction and the Fawcett Cabinet—are absolutely essential for the student of pattern coinage, the more so because, at times during the 1880's, Treasury rulings severely restricted the distribution of patterns through numismatic channels."

926 Mason & Co. COIN SALES. Philadelphia & New York, (1868)-1872. Thirteen catalogues, Adams/Gengerke sale numbers 1, 2, 4-10, 12, 14, 16 & 17. All in the original printed paper covers. MICKLEY, COMPRISING EARLY BRITISH, ENGLISH, GERMAN, SPANISH, FRENCH, ITALIAN, SWEDISH, DANISH, CHINESE AND AMERICAN COINS AND MEDALS... ALSO, VALUABLE NUMISMATIC WORKS, CONTINENTAL CURRENCY, DIES... Philadelphia, November 5-6, 1878. (2), 55, (1) pages, 1093 lots. Original printed blue wrappers a trifle dusty. Near fine. (45.00)

Gengerke page 132. Of this auction, issued several months after Mickley's death, Frossard observed in Numisma: "To judge by the catalogue, compiled by E. Mason, Jr., this sale will be one of the most attractive of the season... The American series contains pieces for the purchase of which the most lively competition will take place, and the Numismatic books alone would have been worthy of a separate catalogue." Lots 905-918 comprised coin dies which were confiscated by the Government before the sale, including those for United States coins ranging from half cent to half eagle.

929 Mason, E., Jr. CATALOGUE OF THE VALUABLE COLLECTION OF COINS OF THE LATE JOSEPH J. MICKLEY... Philadelphia, November 5-6, 1878. (2), 55, (1) pages, 1093 lots. Original printed blue wrappers a trifle dusty. Near fine. (45.00)

931 Massamore, Geo. W. COIN SALES. Baltimore & New York, 1880-1891. Thirty-two catalogues, Adams/Gengerke sale numbers 1-13, 15-19, 21-29, 31-33, 39 & 40. All in the original printed wrappers, five catalogues handpriced, some buyers' names in the first sale. A nice run of generally very good or better copies. (350.00)

Adams, United States Numismatic Literature, pages 98-99: "Of all the catalogers chronicled in these pages, Massamore is the most easily forgotten... Tenacity aside, there are valid reasons for collecting the Massamore series. For the bibliophile, there is scarcity: not only was the retention rate low for obvious reasons, but the original run length was quite limited. G. W. M. claimed that only twenty-four copies of his first sale were printed, although how this number satisfied his then mailing list of 'fifty plus' is not clear. For the researcher, there are islands of interest, particularly in such cases as Maryland medals, the local colonial coinage, gold dollars (doubtless from the B & O Railroad hoard) and large cents. Finally, for numismatists with a sense of humor, there are constant delights, ranging from rationalizations of preceding mistakes and grammar learned in medical school to such technical insights as 'almost proof' and/or 'excessively rare' for pieces which proceed to sell for five percent over face."

932 Massamore, Geo. W. COIN SALES. Baltimore & New York, 1880-1887. Twenty-six catalogues, Adams/Gengerke sale numbers 1-7, 9-13, 15, 17, 21-29 & 31-33. Thirty-four catalogues, Adams/Gengerke sale numbers 1, 2, 2 copies, 2 (2 copies), 4 (2 copies), 7, 9 (2 copies), 12, 22 (5 copies), 23, 24 (4 copies), 26 (4 copies), 27 (4 copies), 28 (2 copies), 29 (3 copies) & 31. All in the original printed wrappers. Generally very good or better copies. Also included is Massamore's 1889 Descriptive and Chronological Catalogue of Confederate Currency, spine strengthened, once folded. (200.00)

EJ, Thomas L. Moore, with his address label affixed to the front pastedown, and a Coin World article on 1904 dollars taped in on a blank leaf preceding the original front card cover. The binding style clearly has both the "look" and "feel" of a special edition Mehl catalogue, and is highly reminiscent of the deluxe version of Mehl's George P. French catalogue, issued several years later. Though Thomas Moore acquired numismatic books and catalogues from a number of sources, his Dallas location cannot but enhance the possible special edition status of this landmark catalogue.

Joseph Mitchelson was one of the premier American coin collectors of the second half of the nineteenth century. In the flyer, Mitchelson notes: "I am trying to get together a collection of all varieties of money used in America of every year and all Mints in as perfect condition as possible." His success in this endeavor is confirmed in his obituary in the 1911 American Journal of Numismatics, where Bauman Belden wrote: "His beautiful and hospitable home was ever open to his friends, especially those with sympathetic tastes for coin-study and his extensive cabinets, abounding in choice examples, were a constant source of delight to collectors and numismatists. In some respects, particularly in American Colonialism in the interesting private issues of gold...in the various series of our national coinage...his cabinet held a high rank, containing as it did many rarities of great value; there are but few which excel it." The collection was bequeathed to the Connecticut State Library, where it still resides despite recent predacity.

Attinelli page 71: "This was the entire collection contained in the well-known 'Old Curiosity Shop' on Broadway, even a close examination of the catalogue gives little idea of the rare and curious articles of vertu which were 'knocked down' by the auctioneer, under direction of the Sheriff: it was indeed a 'laugh'! The following is a fair exhibit of the clearness and distinctness with which many of the articles were catalogued. Lot, '675 box old Coin.' In these ten letters were comprised hundreds of coins and medals, good, bad, and indifferent, rare and common. 'SIC TRANSIT.' The transit from the glowing descriptions of Messrs. Strobridge or Cogan, to such descriptions is enough to make antiquarians sick." A review of buyers' names reveals many not known today, though Idler, Cohen, Parker, Bach, Low, Edwards and other familiar surnames pop up from time to time. There appears to have been at least a grain of truth hidden in Attinelli's wit: lot 675 sold for $10.00 to "D. Dick."

All self-covered or in the original printed card covers as issued (Stack's Numismatic Guide is in the original red cloth), some early issues holed for a binder (as issued?). First item a bit wrinkled, some of the usual light browning in some of the earlier issues, but generally clean, fine copies. (250.00)

Ex November 27-28, 1971 Katen Fuld sale, lot 1488. A very nice run of these often elusive early Stack's fixed price lists, seldom found so complete. Some of the gaps may be numbering errors: Nos. 39 & 52, for example, are unrecorded in Bourne.

New York, March 17, 1993, 140, (4) pages, 922 lots, portrait text illustrations throughout, including full plate illustrations of paper money depicted in color. Quarto. Inscribed in pencil on upper cover: "Private DP" Unique. David Prosky's sales room copy, with notes on condition, authenticity, and what appear to be his bids or commissions. Ex Yale University Library with their ink stamp at the base of the last page. A number of lots are listed as selling to "Frog" or "M. Frog," presumably a derogatory reference to Edward Rossari.

1063 Steigerwalt, Chas. PART 2. COLLECTION OF CHARLES LUCKENBACH, ST. LOUIS, MO. New York, June 28, 1894. 16 pages, lots 650-963, almost completely priced in pencil with buyers' names. Self-covered as issued, first and last page a trifle dusty. Near fine. (50.00)

Inscribed in pencil on upper cover: "Private DP" Unique. David Prosky's sales room copy, with occasional notes on condition and what appear to be his bids or commissions. Ex Yale University Library, with their ink stamp at the base of the last page. The nine piece 1870 pattern set sold to Lyman Low at $5.25 per coin. More "Frog"/"M. Frog" references.

1064 Steigerwalt, Chas. CATALOGUE OF THE COLLECTION OF FRED W. PORTER, CHICAGO, ILL., COMPRISING UNITED STATES SILVER AND COPPER

COINS, FOREIGN SILVER, ANCIENT COINS, MEDALS, ETC. New York, December 15 (changed to 16 in pencil), 1893. 22 pages, blank leaf, 451 lots, priced in pencil with buyers' names. Original wrappers a little chipped as are the outer edges of the text (in need of conservation). (50.00)
A unique sales room copy. Ex Yale University Library, with their ink stamp at the base of the last page. Although appearing to be in a different hand, "Frog" references continue, suggesting widespread use of the sobriquet (could there really have been a Monsieur Frog?).

1065 Steigerwalt, Chas. CATALOGUE OF THE COLLECTION OF GEORGE T. CRAWFORD, CARLISLE, PA., COMPRISING UNITED STATES GOLD, SILVER, NICKEL AND COPPER COINS, AND AMERICAN COLONIALS. New York, July 13, 1894. 28 pages, 640 lots, priced in pencil with buyers' names. Original printed wrappers a trifle worn and discolored. Near fine. (50.00)

Inscribed in pencil on upper cover: "Private DP" Unique. David Prosky's sales room copy, with observations on condition and what appear to be his bids or commissions. Ex Yale University Library, with their ink stamp at the base of the last page. The 1846 "Silver Proof Set" was bought by Steigerwalt for $66.00, though Prosky notes that the half dollar had "scratches." Steigerwalt likewise bought the 1794 silver dollar for $91.00; Prosky was willing to go "50 to 80." Steigerwalt dominated the large cent section (paying $55.00 for the 1804 "Perfect Die" and $65.00 for the uncirculated "Broken die"), though "Frog" managed to purchase a cent or two.

1066 Steigerwalt, Chas. CATALOGUE OF THE COLLECTION FORMED BY NEWTON MATTERN... New York, May 19-20, 1896. 56 pages, 1531 lots, priced in pencil with buyers' names or initials. Original printed wrappers a trifle worn and discolored. Near fine. (50.00)

A unique sales room copy. Ex Yale University Library, with their ink stamp at the base of the last page. Apparently in the same hand as lot 1064. Towards the end of the sale, "Frog" gives way a time or two to "Fross"—perhaps our unknown scrib was mellowing.

1067 Steigerwalt, Chas. COIN SALES. Lancaster & New York, 1881-1907. Twenty-three catalogues, Adams/Gengerke sale numbers 1, 2, 2B, 3-12, 14, 20, 23-26, 32, 35, 45 & 62. Virtually all in the original printed paper covers or self-covered as issued. Also included is a very fine duplicate of the twelfth sale, in printed green-blue wrappers instead of the generic pink wrappers. Generally very good or better copies. (350.00)

Adams page 106: "Early in his career (1881), Steigerwalt claims to have amassed a mailing list of over one thousand names. Perhaps so, but present availability of catalogs would suggest either much lower emissions or extraordinarily poor survival. Whichever, there's darned little Steigerwalt material to go around nowadays. Given the man's great interest in such specialties as colonial paper and large cents, not to mention his expertise overall, the time spent building a file on Charlie Steigerwalt is amply rewarded."

1068 Steigerwalt, Chas. COIN SALES. Lancaster & New York, 1881-1907. Sixteen catalogues, Adams/Gengerke sale numbers 1-5, 7-12, 14, 24, 25, 32 & 62. Virtually all in the original printed paper covers or self-covered as issued. Also included is a fine duplicate of the twelfth sale, in printed green-blue wrappers instead of the generic pink wrappers. A few minor faults, generally very good or better copies. (200.00)

1069 Steigerwalt, Chas. COIN SALES. Lancaster & New York, 1881-1907. Eleven catalogues, Adams/Gengerke sale numbers 1-5, 7-12, 14 & 62. All in the original printed paper covers or self-covered as issued, some soiling and fading. Largely very good copies. (also) Steigerwalt, Chas. WHOLESALE LOTS OF U. S. AND FOREIGN COINS. Lancaster, undated (May 14 1900 date of arrival stamp at head). 8 pages. Self-covered. (also) Steigerwalt, Chas. COINS, PAPER MONEY, ETC. Lancaster, July, 1909 (Jul 13 1909 date of arrival stamp at head). 4 pages. Self-covered, frayed at edges. (250.00)

No. 40 is recorded as "Not seen" in Adams. Likewise, the last two items above are not listed. The July, 1909 list offers "Foreign Copper Coins... the result of a house-cleaning of some Mint at Birmingham or on the Continent. They appear to be essays but whether authorized or not, it is difficult to say..." Listings of 1870s coins from Andorra, Patagonia, Orange Free States and elsewhere follow. Also featured is interesting commentary on the controversial "A. N. A. Presidency" ("As a happy way out, I ask pardon for suggesting that some prominent collector, like V. B. Brand, H. O. Granberg, W. H. Woodin or others, be given a unanimous election").

1072 Strobridge, William H. CATALOGUE OF... THE COLLECTION OF THE HON. HENRY A. MUHLBERG. New York, June 9, 1863. 78 pages, blank leaf, 1549 + 110 lots, partly priced in pencil with buyers' names. Original printed brown wrappers a bit worn. (50.00)

Elliot. CATALOGUE OF A VALUABLE COLLECTION OF AMERICAN COINS & MEDALS, THE PROPERTY OF CHARLES CLAY, M.D., OF MANCHESTER, ENGLAND. New York, December 5-7, 1871. 97, (1) pages, blank leaf, 1356 lots, very fine impressions of the 2 fine mounted photographic plates, mainly depicting colonial coins along with a few choice early cents. Original printed gray wrappers a little worn and soiled, internally very fine. (bound with) Mason & Co. PRINTED ANNOUNCEMENT OF THE CLAY SALE. Philadelphia, November 9, 1871. Single sheet, printed on one side. Fine. (bound with) Cogan, Edward. PRINTED ANNOUNCEMENT OF THE CLAY SALE. Brooklyn, November 10, 1871. Single sheet, printed on one side. Small smudge on right margin, else fine. (250.00)

Ex J. N. T. Levick, with his ink stamp on the backs of the plates, and on both announcement letters. Adams A- "RR colonials, some of them fishes. Carolina elephants (3). Rosa Americana pattern (1 of 2). Proof 1820 16, other fine copper." Also notable for a complete Isle of Man collection. The two printed sale announcement letters are rarely encountered. The letters were necessary because, as Cogan notes, "my friend (Mr. Strobridge) has not thought it worthwhile to name those who usually take orders and attend the sale for the purpose of executing them." He goes on to name Mason & Co., of 139 North Ninth Street, Philadelphia, "and your humble servant, who is for a few months carrying on his business at his private residence." Mason & Co. are not so magnanimous, mentioning only themselves and noting that "We pride ourselves upon purchasing coins at sales at low prices (feeling no interest in keeping up high prices)."

1075 Strobridge, W. H. & Woodward, W. Elliot. CATALOGUE OF A VALUABLE COLLECTION OF AMERICAN COINS & MEDALS, THE PROPERTY OF CHARLES CLAY... New York, December 5-7, 1871. 97, (1) pages, 1356 lots, very fine impressions of the 2 fine mounted photographic plates, priced in red ink. Adams B. "Fine European crowns, RR English, such as 1550, crown, Immuns Columbia 1792, European medals, George III peace medal." One of the great rarities among nineteenth century American auction sale catalogues issued with photographic illustrations. Only two examples with both plates, one with one defective plate, have come to market in the modern era. This was Strobridge's final sale, catalogued in large part by his son. The conclusion of his introduction summarizes what must have been a bittersweet period in his life: "After a retirement of nearly two years, compelled by what at first threatened to be a total loss of sight, I esteem myself fortunate on my reappearance before my friends, in being able to make my debut with this collection."

A most important series of early American coin sale catalogues. "Beginning with the Lillendahl sale of May 1862, there follows an absolutely superb series of auction catalogs. While relatively brief in number (twenty-nine), these are unsurpassed in quality of content; twelve — more than 40% — receive a rating of A or better and only the non-numismatic sales fall below a rating of B. Five catalogs fall into the highest possible category; the second Lillendahl sale (1863), the Clay collection (1871), the descriptive Seavey catalog (1873), the Stenz sale (1875) and the Brevoort/Parmelee sale (1876). The quality of the content of these five is so uniformly high that, in order to draw a modern comparison, one must turn to Garrett-Hopkins." — John W. Adams, United States Numismatic Literature, Volume I. Present here are four of the five key catalogues cited by Adams. Other significant catalogues present include 1862 Lillendahl, Smith, Mühlenberg, 1863 & 1864 Seavey, 1873 Parmelee/Seavey, Groux, Middleton, Taylor, and Havana.

END OF SALE • THANK YOU

"But above all, Inquiry is to be made, where any Cabinets or Collections of Medals are to be disposed of, whether by Auction, or privately, Since by this means (as he who would furnish his Library with excellent Books) more may happily be procur'd at once, and at tolerable Price, than one shall be able to find, and get together in many Years, by Collecting them one by one. And there is likewise this Encouragement, that Traffic for Medals between Gentlemen and the Curious, either by Money or Exchange, is ever esteem'd an honourable Commerce."

EVELYN.
